

Calculator user manual

Here's some basic information on how to use the calculator:

1. Basic Mathematical Operations

- Addition: To add two numbers, press the "+" button.
- Subtraction: To subtract two numbers, press the "-" button.
- Multiplication: Press the "x" button to multiply two numbers.
- Division: Press the "/" button to divide two numbers.
- Equal sign: Press to display the given calculation.

2. Advanced Mathematical Operations

- Absolute value: To get the absolute value of a given number, press the " $|x|$ " button.
- Factorial: Press the "x!" button to get the factorial of the given number.
- Power: Press the " x^y " button to exponentiate two numbers.
- Square root: Press the " $x\sqrt{y}$ " button to square two numbers.

3. Entering numbers

- Use the number buttons on the calculator to enter a number.
- For decimal numbers, use a period as a decimal place separator.

4. Deleting numbers

- To delete the entire displayed number, press the "CE" button.

5. Manual

- Press the "Man" button to display help.

